Spring 2023

Dear colleagues,

As spring arrives, bringing with it a season of growth and rejuvenation, our Centre is also blossoming with fresh ideas and initiatives.

We are actively planning our first inter-departmental mega-study (with more than 30 experimental conditions!), focused on the exploration of unethical behavior. We keep you posted about this exciting journey.

Additionally, we will be hosting the International Conference on Environmental Psychology (ICEP) in June. With an expected turnout of 600 participants, this event promises to be a valuable and engaging experience for all. Registration remains open for both in-person and online attendance, with all talks being streamed live. To secure a spot, please visit: <https://icep2023.au.dk/>

In the coming weeks, we also have captivating talks lined up. We start with "The Psychology of Resource Scarcity" by Caroline Roux (Concordia University Montreal). More information about these events can be found below.

Warm regards,
Panos & Stefan
