

“Fading Memory”

Your fading out in my memory, My childhood seems like a mystery - And I can't even remember how you look

Days have gone, and so are you, I wish that you could see me through - But God decided to take you away

So tell me Mom, are you proud of me, Can you take me out my misery, Please help take away all my rage, Please God, God help me turn this page

They say that time will heal my wounds, But time is not my friend as assumed - It feels like I'm losing my faith

The night is dark, my mind is to, Blinded by my thoughts of you - Help me out to see things clear

And tell me Mom, are you proud of me, Can you take me out my misery, Please help take away all my rage, Please God, God help me turn this page

If you saw me now, would you really see, The man I became, for you to be - Or would you turn away in disgrace

It's been a while but now I see, I'm losing you in my memory - It's written all over my tear-stained face

So tell me Mom, are you proud of me, Can you take me out my misery, Please help take away all my rage - Mmmm. tell me Mom, are you proud of me Can you take me out my misery, Please help take away all my rage, Please God, God help me turn this page.
